Registration Open for the First Public Seminar of the Court of Arbitration for Sport to be held in Canada

Montréal (Québec) - Under the theme "Pursuing Excellence in Sport Dispute Resolution", the Public Seminar the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS), hosted by the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC), is now open for registration.

A first in Canada, this event will be held in Vancouver, British Columbia, on February 11, 2016. Sport administrators, sport lawyers, as well as professional mediators and arbitrators with an interest in sport, will converge to this seminar for a unique opportunity to learn from and network with worldwide experts in the field of alternative resolution of sports-related disputes.

The program, the registration form and information on the seminar are available on the SDRCC website at the following link: <http://www.crdsc-sdrcc.ca/eng/public-conference-2016>. While the registration period extends to January 8, 2016, participants who register no later than December 1, 2015 will benefit from an early bird reduced registration rate. A special rate is also offered to students.

About SDRCC

The SDRCC is a not-for-profit corporation created by federal legislation and funded by the Government of Canada. The mission of the SDRCC is to provide the sport community with a national alternative dispute resolution service and strengthen the culture of fairness in Canadian sport by resolving disputes quickly and efficiently and to provide expertise and assistance regarding alternative dispute resolution.
