The October Issue of In The Neutral Zone is now Available

Montréal (Québec) - The October 2018 issue of In the Neutral Zone, the newsletter of the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC), is now available online at: <http://crdsc-sdrcc.ca/eng/media-newsletters>

This edition features an overview of the Investigation Unit program, recently announced by the SDRCC as a pilot project to enable access to independent investigators for federally-funded sport organizations. In addition to the profile of an SDRCC med/arb neutral and various announcements, the newsletter also promotes the publication of new resources intended to help parties better understand the SDRCC proceedings, whether in ordinary or doping cases.

To better serve the Canadian sport community, the SDRCC welcomes comments and feedback regarding its newsletter and educational materials. This can be done by sending a message to education@crdsc-sdrcc.ca.

About SDRCC

The SDRCC is a not-for-profit corporation created by federal legislation and funded by the Government of Canada. The mission of the SDRCC is to provide the sport community with a national alternative dispute resolution service and strengthen the culture of fairness in Canadian sport by resolving disputes quickly and efficiently and to provide expertise and assistance regarding alternative dispute resolution.
