The October Issue of In the Neutral Zone is now Available

Montréal (Québec) - The October 2019 issue of In the Neutral Zone, the newsletter of the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC), is now available online at: <http://crdsc-sdrcc.ca/eng/media-newsletters>

This edition features an overview of the Sport Law Connect Program, an unprecedented partnership initiative to increase access to affordable dispute resolution services at all levels of Canadian sport. The program will be launched soon in Manitoba and has already been implemented in British Columbia. In addition to the profile of an SDRCC med/arb neutral, the newsletter announces the opening of registration for the Regional Seminar of the Court of Arbitration for Sport, to constitute the public portion of the SDRCC Mediator and Arbitrator Conference in January 2020 in Montreal, Quebec.

To better serve the Canadian sport community, the SDRCC welcomes comments and feedback regarding its newsletter and educational materials. This can be done by sending a message to education@crdsc-sdrcc.ca.

About SDRCC

The SDRCC is a not-for-profit corporation created by federal legislation and funded by the Government of Canada. The mission of the SDRCC is to provide the sport community with a national alternative dispute resolution service and strengthen the culture of fairness in Canadian sport by resolving disputes quickly and efficiently and to provide expertise and assistance regarding alternative dispute resolution.
